Airway Medix S.A. Accelerates International Expansion – New Distribution Agreement with Latin American Partner

Warsaw, 18 July 2025 – The Management Board of Airway Medix S.A. is pleased to announce the signing of another significant distribution agreement with a medical company based in the Latin American region. The contract covers the distribution of the Company's flagship products, Cuffix and B-Care Oral Care, outside the territory of the European Union.

The agreement has been concluded for a period of three years, with an automatic extension for an additional year, paving the way for long-term cooperation. The anticipated minimum order value to be fulfilled under the agreement between 2025 and 2027 amounts to approximately EUR 0.3 million. The detailed terms of the contract are in line with market standards, ensuring stability and transparency of the partnership.

This new agreement marks another important step in Airway Medix S.A.'s focused strategy of expanding the international reach of its innovative products. – "We are not slowing down. We continue to gradually strengthen our presence in foreign markets through selective partnerships, and we are in ongoing discussions with additional potential partners, both within and outside the European Union. The trust of our international partners is the best proof of the innovation and quality of our offering," emphasizes Anna Aranowska-Bablok, CEO of Airway Medix S.A.

Airway Medix S.A. remains committed to building its position internationally and to delivering effective medical technologies that improve the quality of healthcare worldwide.
